Emmaus Catholic Primary School

SELECTION CRITERIA

Emmaus Catholic Primary School is a co-educational Catholic school in Dayton, in the heart of the Swan Valley catering for 3K to Year 6 students. The school opened in January 2023 and we currently have a student population of 240. The school will continue to grow its population in transition to a double stream. We are excited to welcome families of all cultures who seek a Catholic education for their child/children. Our school focuses on providing a quality Catholic education and personal success for all students.

Our school is a place for learning, connecting, developing, transforming and journeying together so each student reaches their God given potential. Together in close partnership with parents, we will deliver a Christ centred and child focused education of the highest quality.

The successful applicant will work with students with additional needs, predominantly in the ECE/Early Years area.
